2010 McNally-Smith Scholarship Information and Application

Conclave Music Business Scholarship. The Conclave Music Business Scholarship is an award presented to either a current or incoming McNally Smith College of Music business student each academic year. This prestigious award is granted to the applicant who: (1) Best demonstrates his or her ambition to pursue a career in the music industry. (2) Has maintained a good academic record, (3) Demonstrates financial need.

Award. The scholarship is an award of $4000 per semester, up to four semesters total. The scholarship is valued at up to $16,000. Renewal is automatic as long as the student achieves a grade point average of 3.0 for each semester s work and enrolls full-time.

Eligible Applicants. Any music business student who will be attending the 2010-2011 school year at McNally Smith College is eligible to apply. The scholarship recipient will not be notified until he or she is accepted to the college.

Eligibility Criteria. Scholarship applicants must submit a McNally Smith College of Music scholarship application (available for download), official high school/college transcripts, and two letters of reference and/or faculty recommendations.

Deadline. Applications must be postmarked no later than March 1, 2010.

Acceptance. The applicant must be a current McNally Smith College of Music business student, or have applied for admission by March 1, 2010. He or she has to be accepted and sign a letter of intent by April 1, 2010. Scholarship recipients will be expected to represent McNally Smith College in promoting music education at public and/or school-related events, as well as be a role model for other students. The scholarship winner will be notified prior to April 1st, and will receive the award at the 35th Annual Conclave Learning Conference in the summer of 2010. The winner is encouraged to attend The Learning Conference and The Conclave will provide complimentary tuition to attend.

About The Conclave.
